I, A. B. do solemnly and sincerely declare, That _____ and I make this solemn Declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the Provisions of an Act made and passed in the _____ Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act (Here insert the Title of this Act).

C A P. LXIII.

An Act to repeal an Act of the Fourth and Fifth Year of His present Majesty relating to Weights and Measures, and to make other Provisions in respect thereof. [9th September 1835.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend and render more effectual Two Acts of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth relating to Weights and Measures. And whereas it is expedient to repeal the same, and to make other Provisions in respect thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to interfere with any Acts done or Appointments made under the Authority of the said Act, or in prevent the suing for or Recovery of any Penalty incurred by any Offence committed against the Provisions of the said Act previous to the Repeal thereof in and by this Act, or to hinder or defeat any Prosecution commenced or to be brought for such Offence, but all Penalties and Forfeitures so incurred may be sued for and recovered in the same Manner as any Penalties and Forfeitures incurred under the Provisions of this Act are recoverable.

III. And whereas an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for ascertaining and establishing Conformity of Weights and Measures. And whereas another Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to prolong the Time of the Commencement of an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for ascertaining and establishing Conformity of Weights and Measures; and to amend the said Act: And whereas, not observing the Provisions of the said recited Acts, many Sets of Weights and Measures of old accustomed and different Shapes have been made and verified and stamped by the Chamberlains as well as by the Auditor in the Exchequer, as Models of the said new Standards, and have been used as Standard Weights and Measures under the said recited Acts, although different in Shape and Form from the Standards prescribed by the said recited Act of the Fifth Year aforesaid, and it is therefore expedient that such Standard Weights and Measures should be made legal, and that the Comptroller General or some other Officer of the Exchequer duly authorized should be empowered to compare and verify, and stamp as so compared and verified, Standards of Length, Weight, or Measure, although not exact Models and Copies in Shape and Form of the respective Standards of Length, Weight, and Measure deposited under the Provisions of the said first recited Acts in the Office of the said Chamberlains and Auditor: And whereas it is expedient that the Use of all Weights and Measures not in conformity with the Weights and Measures established by the said recited Acts should be prohibited, and that the Use of the Heaped Measure should be abolished: be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said last-mentioned recited Acts as require that all Weights and Measures shall be Models and Copies in Shape or Form of the Standards deposited in the Exchequer, and also so much of the said recited Acts as allow the Use of Weights and Measures not in conformity with the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures established by the said Acts, or allow Goods or Merchandise to be bought or sold by any Weights or Measures established by local Customs or founded on special Agreement, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

IV. And be it enacted, That all Weights and Measures which have been so verified and stamped at the Exchequer at Westminster as Copies of the Standard Weights and Measures, corresponding in Weight and Capacity with those established by the said recited Acts, shall be deemed and taken to be legal Weights and Measures, to be used for Comparison as Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures, although not similar in Shape to those required under the Provisions of the said recited Acts; and that the Comptroller General, or some other Officer of the Exchequer at Westminster duly authorized, may compare and verify, and stamp as so compared and verified, all correct Standard Measures of a Yard, and all correct Standard Weights, and all correct Standard Measures of Capacity, any Weights and Measures which shall correspond in Length, Weight, and Capacity with the Standards, or Parts or Multiples thereof respectively, deposited in the Exchequer under the said Act of the Fifth Year aforesaid, although such Weights and Measures may not be Made or Cast in Shape or Form of the Standards so deposited as aforesaid; any Thing in the said recited Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Copies of the Standard Weights and Measures which shall have been used, &c. to be sent to the Exchequer to be re-verified, &c.

V. And be it enacted, That all Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures which may have become defective, or have been needed in consequence of any Wear or Accident, shall forthwith be sent to the Exchequer at Westminster for the Purpose of being again compared and verified, and shall be stamped as re-verified Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures, provided that the Comptroller General or other Officer appointed for such Verification shall deem them fit to be used for the Purposes of Standards; and every new Comparison and Verification shall be entered upon the original Instrument of Verification; and such Weights and Measures shall be so stamped upon Payment of Fees of Verification only; and the Comptroller General or other Officer at the Exchequer duly authorized shall keep an Account or Register of all Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures that shall have been verified at the Exchequer.

Local and Customary Measures abolished; but certain Vessels may be used.

VI. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Measure called the Winester Beadell, and the Liquid Measure called the Scotch Ell, and all local or customary Measures, shall be abolished, and every Person who shall sell, by any Denomination of Measure other than use of the Imperial Measure, or some Multiple or some aliquot Part, such as Half, the Quarter, the Eighth, the Sixteenth, or the Thirty-second Parts thereof, shall, as Conviction, be liable to a Penalty not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings for every such Sale: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Sale of any Articles in any Vessel, where such Vessel is not represented as containing any Amount of Imperial Measure, or of any fixed, local, or customary Measure heretofore in use.

Articles heretofore sold by Heaped Measure, how to be sold.

VIII. And whereas some Articles heretofore sold by Heaped Measure are from their Size and Shape incapable of being stricken, and from their Nature and Quality may not be conveniently sold by Weight; be it therefore enacted, That all such Articles may heretofore be sold by a Bushel Measure, corresponding in Measure with the Bushel prescribed in and by the said Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty for the Sale of Heaped Measure, or by any Multiple or by some aliquot Part, such as the Half, the Quarter, or the Eighth Part thereof, filled in all Parts as nearly to the Level of the Brim as the Size and Shape of the Articles sold will admit: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Sale by Weight of any Article heretofore sold by Heaped Measure.

Coins to be sold by Weight and not by Measure.

IX. And whereas the Sale of all Coins, Stack, Culs, and Cannel of every Description by Weight, and not by Measure, would tend greatly to prevent the Commission of Frauds and Imperfections in the Vend and Delivery of such Coins, Stack, Culs, and Cannel of every Description; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six all Coins, Stack, Culs, and Cannel of every Description shall be sold by Weight and not by Measure; and every Person who shall from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six sell any Coins, Stack, Culs, or Cannel of every Description by Measure, and not by Weight, shall, as Conviction, be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for every such Sale.

Weights, Hundred
Weights, and Tons.

Certain
Weights and Measures to be stamped as weights.

XII. Weights made of Lead or

XIII. And whereas the Use of Weights made of soft Materials affords Facility to Fraud; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six no Weight made of Lead or of Pewter, or of any Mixture thereof, shall be stamped or used: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Use of Lead or Pewter, or of any Mixture thereof, in the Manufacture of Weights, if they be wholly and substantially cast with Brass, Copper, or Iron, and legibly stamped or marked "Case'd," or shall prevent the Insertion of such a Plug of Lead or Pewter into Weights as shall be found abs necessary for the Purpose of adjusting them and of affixing thereon the Stamp herein-after mentioned.

last-recited Act; and that all Contracts of Composition which have been made or entered into, or which within the Time limited by this Act may be made or entered into, under and in conformity with the Provisions of the said recited Act, and of this Act, for or in respect of the Duties on any Carriages of the Description aforesaid, shall be and the same are hereby declared to be good, valid, and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and all Persons who have compounded or shall compound for the Duty on any such Carriage shall be at Liberty also to set up, keep, and use a Carriage with Four Wheels drawn by Two or more Horses, on Payment of the Difference of Duty, and the Piercentage therein, in like Manner, and under and subject to the same Conditions, Rules, and Regulations, as Persons who have compounded for a Two wheel Carriage are by the Laws in force entitled to set up, keep, and use a Carriage with Four Wheels.

X. And whereas the Revenues arising from the Duties of Stamps and the Land and Assessed Taxes in Great Britain are now under the Care and Management of One Consolidated Board of Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, and it would facilitate the Collection of the Land and Assessed Taxes in Scotland, and tend to reduce the Expence of receiving and remitting that Branch of the Public Revenue, if the several Distributors and Sub-Distributors of Stamps or other Persons employed in the Receipt and Collection of the Stamp Duties in Scotland were also appointed Collectors of the Land and Assessed Taxes; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, to appoint such and as many of the Distributors and Sub-Distributors of Stamps in Scotland, or such other Persons as the said Commissioners may think fit, to be Collectors or other Officers for collecting and receiving the Land Tax and Assessed Taxes in Scotland, and for such Parts of Scotland and with such Salaries and Allowances as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall think fit, and such Persons shall hold their respective Offices during the Will and Pleasure of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury or of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, in such Manner as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall direct; and such Persons shall in all Manners and Things relating to the Execution of their Duties be subject to the Authority, Directions, and Control of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury and the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, and shall obey such Orders and Instructions as shall from Time to Time be issued to them by the said Commissioners respectively: Provided always, that the Land Tax Commissioners and Commissioners for putting in execution the Assessed Tax Acts in Scotland shall have no Power or Authority whatever to appoint Persons to collect the said Land Tax and Assessed Taxes, or to remove, or call to account or examine, or enforce Payment of Balances due by the Persons appointed by virtue of this Act, any thing in any Act or Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that if any Persons other than the Distributors and Sub-Distributors of Stamps in Scotland shall be appointed as aforesaid to be Collectors or other Officers as aforesaid, then the Names of such Persons, with their respective Salaries and Allowances, shall be laid by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury before Parliament within Twenty-one Days after the Commencement of the Session of Parliament which shall next follow every such Appointment.

XI. And be it enacted, That the Collectors and other Officers to be appointed as aforesaid shall, before they shall act in the Execution of their respective Offices, give Security by Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to such an Amount and in such Terms as the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes shall think fit, and with sufficient Sureties to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners.

XII. And be it enacted, That all Bonds, Bills, and Securities whatsoever to be entered into with or given by the Collectors to be appointed under the Provisions of this Act, or their respective Sureties, with relation to the said Duties of Land and Assessed Taxes respectively, shall be free from all Stamp Duty whatever; and no Collector appointed under this Act as aforesaid shall in any Case be liable to or charged with any Stamp Duty, Fee, or Gratuity or his Commission, Warrant, or other Instrument to be obtained or had, either on his first Appointment or any renewal or succeeding Appointment to be such Collector as aforesaid under this Act, nor to any Fee or Gratuity for any Matter or Thing incident to the Execution of his Office, or for sending or passing his Accounts, either in His Majesty's Treasury or the Office for Taxes, or any other Office.

XIII. And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled An Act for consolidating certain of the Provisions contained in any Act or Acts relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and for amending the said Acts, as far as the same relate to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, it was enacted, that the Land Tax in Scotland shall be assessed, raised, levied, and paid under the Regulations of the last-recited Act; and it is expedient to alter the said Enactment; be it therefore enacted, That the Land Tax in Scotland shall be recovered, levied, collected, and paid under the same Rules, Regulations, Provisions, and Penalties, as the Assessed Taxes in Scotland now are or may hereafter be recovered, levied, collected, and paid; any thing in the said last-recited Act or any other Act or Acts contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XIV. And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty-fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled An Act to repeal the several Duties under the Commissioners for managing the Duties upon stamped Papers, Parchment, and Paper in Great Britain, and to grant new and additional Duties in lieu thereof, a Duty of Two Pounds and Two Shillings, over and above all other Duties, was granted and is now payable in Great Britain for every Horse, Mare, or Gelding entered to meet or run for * any Plate, Prize, Sum of Money, or other Thing whatsoever: And whereas certain Duties of Assessed Taxes, amounting to the Sum of One Pound Eight Shillings and Nine pence, have also been granted and are now payable in Great Britain under Schedule (E.), Number Three, of Two several Acts passed respectively in the Forty-eighth and Fifty-second Years of the Reign of the said King George the Third, for every Horse, Mare, or Gelding kept for the Purpose of racing or running for any Plate, Prize, or Sum of Money, or other Thing, or kept in training for any of the said Purposes: And whereas the said several Duties of Two Pounds Two Shillings and One Pound Eight Shillings and Nine pence are respectively levied and collected by different Officers and under different Rules and Regulations, and it would give Relief to the Persons chargeable therewith, and tend to facilitate the Collection thereof, if the same were reduced in Amount, and assessed and levied in One Sum, in the Manner hereinafter mentioned; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the said several Duties of Two Pounds Two Shillings and One Pound Eight Shillings and Nine pence granted and now payable as aforesaid under and by virtue of the said several Acts heretofore recited or referred to shall be and the same are hereby severally repealed, save and except as to any Arrears of the said respective Duties, and any Penalties incurred in relation thereto, all which said Arrears and Penalties may be sued for, recovered, levied, and applied in the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

II. And be it further enacted, That any Printer or Publisher of any Newspaper who shall, without such Leave as aforesaid, print and publish in such Newspaper any Lecture or Lectures, shall be deemed and taken to be a Person printing and publishing without Leave within the Provisions of this Act, and liable to the aforesaid Forfeitures and Penalties in respect of such printing and publishing.

C A P. LXXXII.

An Act for abolishing the Excise Incorporation in Scotland, and for transferring the Funds of the said Incorporation to the Consolidated Fund, and providing for the Payment of the Annuities to the Widows and Orphans of late and present Members of the Incorporation Fund.

[26th September 1835.]

Royal Charter or Letters Patent of His Majesty King George the Fourth, establishing the Excise Incorporation in Scotland.

WHEREAS, for the Purpose of raising a Fund by Contributions out of their Salaries for Payment of Annuities to their Widows and Orphans, the Officers of Excise under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland were, by a Royal Charter or Letters Patent under the Seal of Great Britain, appointed by the Treaty of Union to be kept and made use of in place of the Great Seal of Scotland, on bearing Date the Fourteenth Day of July in the Twenty-second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, and in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and forty-eight, constituted, erected, incorporated, and perpetually established and confirmed into One Body Public and Corporate, or legal Incorporation and Society, under the Title and Name of "The Excise Incorporation in Scotland," and as such and by such Name to have a perpetual Succession and Succession; and for the Ends and Purposes of raising such Fund, and making such Payments, it was by the said Charter or Letters Patent, among other Things, ordained, directed, ordered, and appointed that the said Corporation should comprehend and be distinguished into Three different Classes, the First whereof to consist of General Supervisors, General Surveyors, and Collectors, or such like Offices, if held under any other Names at any Time thereafter; the Second Class to consist of Supervisors, Surveyors, Examiners, Accountants and Clerks, or such like Offices, if under other Names; the Third Class, of Gaugers, Superintendants, or Assistants, or such like Offices, if under other Names; and also that in order to establish the said Fund each Member of the Corporation should pay the Sums after mentioned, according to their Class, during their Lives yearly, and by Eight equal Payments; (that is to say,) those of the First Class, Three Pounds Four Shillings Sterling Money yearly; those of the Second Class, Two Pounds Eight Shillings Sterling Money yearly; and those of the Third Class, One Pound Twelve Shillings like Money yearly; and also certain additional Contributions on Promotions and on Contributions marrying twice or otherwise; and further that the Sums of Money so to be contributed and paid should be subject and applied to the Annuities payable to the Widows and Children of the Contributors according to the Classes before mentioned, and at the Rates after specified, that is, that there should be paid to the Widow or Children of each Contributor of the First Class a yearly Annuity of Sixteen Pounds Sterling, of each Contributor of the Second Class a yearly Annuity of Twelve Pounds Sterling, and of each Contributor of the Third Class a yearly Annuity of Eight Pounds like Money, all to be paid quarterly, on the Twenty-fifth Day of March, Twenty-fourth Day of June, Twenty-ninth Day of September, and Twenty-fifth Day of December; and that when a Contributor should leave a Widow and no Children, the said Annuity should be paid to her during her natural Life and Widowity, but upon her Decease or marrying again should thereupon cease and determine; and when he should have Children, One or more, under the Age of Twelve Years, and no Widow, the said Annuity should be paid to the said Children until the youngest of them attained the Age of Twelve Years complete, but thenceforth and thereafter should cease and determine; and that when the Contributor should leave both a Widow and Children, One or more, under the Age of Twelve Years, the Annuity should be paid to the Widow during her Life and Widowity, and in case of her dying or marrying again before the youngest of the said Children attained the Age of Twelve Years complete, should no longer be payable to the Widow, but should thenceforth be paid to the Children, and until the youngest of them should attain the Age of Twelve Years complete, and should then cease and determine; and Provision was also made in and by the said Royal Charter or Letters Patent for raising and managing the said Fund and Contributions, and paying the said Annuities, by Managers to be elected and appointed as therein was directed. And whereas it having been found by Experience that higher Rates of Contributions and the Interest of a larger Stock of Capital, in proportion to the increased Number of Members, would be necessary for raising the same, and for extending the Benefits of the said Royal Charter or Letters Patent, an Act was passed in the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for confirming the Charter and enjoying the Powers of the Corporation of the Officers of Excise in Scotland, by which said Act the said Charter and Letters Patent, and all the Regulations, Ordinances, and Appointments therein contained, and all the Proceedings had in consequence thereof, were confirmed, so far as the same were not altered by the said Act, and by the said Act the said Incorporation was directed to be continued and distinguished into Three Classes; (that is to say,) the First Class thereof to consist of General Supervisors, General Surveyors, and Collectors, along with the Auditor, the Comptroller, the Cashier, the Secretary or Secretaries, the Solicitor or Solicitors, the General Accountants, and the General Examiners, and the Deputies established in the actual Execution of those Offices, or the Persons in the actual Occupation of Offices of the like Nature, if held under other or different Names; the Second Class to consist of Supervisors, Surveyors, Examiners, Accountants, and Clerks in the General Excise Office in Edinburgh receiving Salaries directly out of the Revenue, or the Persons established in the actual Occupation of Offices of the like Nature, if held under any other or different Names; the Third Class to consist of Gaugers or Officers, Superintendants and Assistants, or the Persons established in the actual Occupation of Offices of the like Nature, if held under other or different Names; and every Member of the said Incorporation is by the said Act made subject and liable to and to pay the Sums or Rate herein-after mentioned according to his proper Class, during his Life yearly, by Four equal quarterly Payments; (that is to say,) each Member of the First Class, Seven Pounds and Ten Shillings; each Member of the Second Class, Five Pounds Twelve Shillings and Sixpence; and each Member of the Third Class, Three Pounds Fifteen Shillings; and Provision is thereby also made for the Payment of the Difference of Rates on the Promotions of Members from a lower to a higher Class, and for the Payment of certain additional Rates on Marriage; but an Option being by the said Act given to the Contributors under the said Royal Charter or Letters Patent to accede or not to the Provisions of this said Act, in order to secure upon just and equitable Terms the limited Advantages proposed by the said Royal Charter or Letters Patent, it is directed by the said Act that every non-acceding Member should, in pursuance of a Provision made and reserved to that Effect in the said Royal Charter or Letters Patent, be called upon and obliged to future regularly to pay into the said Fund, towards the due and necessary Support thereof, not only his ordinary annual Contribution, and the Rates imposed in cases of any second or subsequent Marriages as directed by the * aforesaid Royal Charter or Letters Patent, but also an Addition to his said ordinary Contributions, * and along with the same, at the Rate of Seven Shillings and Sixpence annually, for a Contribution * of the Third Class over and above his then present Rate of One Pound Twelve Shillings and Six* pence, making together the annual Rate of Two Pounds, and so in proportion for those of the Two * higher Classes, as before distinguished respectively, and all the Rates and Sums of Money so to be * contributed, together with all that had already been contributed and accumulated under the Royal * Charter or Letters Patent aforesaid, were by the said Act directed to continue and be vested in and * applied by Order and Direction of the said Incorporation, and the Managers and Cashiers thereof, * appointed as therein mentioned, for behoof of the same and their Successors in Office, to and for * the Uses and Purposes after mentioned, (that is to say,) in the first place, for defraying the necessary * Expenses incurred and to be incurred in the passing of the said Act, and in establishing and * executing the Scheme; secondly, for the further raising of a Fund and Capital Stock for the Pur* poses of the Scheme in the Extent therein limited, subject and applicable to the Payment of * Annuities to Widows and Children of Contributors, according to the Three several Classes there-* before distinguished, at the Rates after specified; (that is to say,) that there should be paid as a * yearly Annuity to the Widow or to the lawful Children of each Contributor, of the First Class, * Thirty-two Pounds; of the Second Class, Twenty-four Pounds; and of the Third Class, Sixteen * Pounds, such several Annuities to be paid by equal Portions quarterly, and within One Month * after each Quarter Day respectively, to wit, on the Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth * Day of July, and Tenth Day of October, successively, commencing the First Quarter's Payment at * the first of these Days which should happen after the Death of the Contributor, and so on regularly

 * during the natural Life of the Widow and her remaining unmarried, or until the youngest surviving * Child of such Contributor should attain the Age of Sixteen Years complete, whichever of those Events * should happen the latest; provided that the Widows and Children of Contributors under the said * Royal Charter or Letters Patent not according to the Scheme under the said recited Act were to be * paid Annuities only at the former limited Rates under the said Royal Charter or Letters Patent, and * to continue to Children only until the youngest of such Children should attain the Age of Twelve * Years, as provided by the said original Patent; and in order to render the Funds thereby established * sufficient and available for answering the several Purposes of the said Act, Power was thereby given to * raise a Capital Fund or Stock, proportioned to the Number of Contributors, according to certain Rules * and Regulations in the said Act contained; and it was amongst other Things further provided, that * as soon and so often as the said Stock should amount to the Capital Sum therein described and limited, * in proportion to the Number of Contributors, the Surplus which might be found above that Amount * upon balancing the Accounts ending at the Fifth Day of July annually should be set apart and applied
 * by the Managers of the Incorporation at the Time in each Portion as they should judge best, for aug* menting the Annuities to the Widows and Children of the Contributors proportionably, such Augmenta* tions not to exceed the One Half of the ordinary Annuity payable to each Assistant; and in case of any * Surplus beyond what should be judged necessary for making such Augmentation within the Limit aforesaid, * Power is given to the Managers to apply such further Surplus towards paying the Annuities in the * succeeding Year, and in consequence to direct and allow an Abatement to be made proportionally out * of the ordinary Rates payable by the whole Contributors in the said Year respectively, or, with the * Assent of the Contributors, to form such other Plan for the Application of such last-mentioned Surplus, * and to apply the same accordingly, in such Manner as should appear most agreeable to the Majority * of the Contributors, and most for the Benefit of all concerned; and Provision is by the said Act also * made for appointing Managers for conducting the Affairs of the said Incorporation. And whereas * the Capital Sum in the said Act described and limited having been raised, and a Surplus having been * found, the Managers of the said Incorporation have suggested the Annuities payable to the Widows
 * and Children of Contributors to the Extent of One Half more than the Amount specified in the said * Act; (that is to say,) to the Widows and Children of Contributors, Accorders to the said Act, of the * First Class, an Annuity of Forty-eight Pounds; of the Second Class, Thirty-six Pounds; and of the * Third Class, Twenty-four Pounds, respectively; and to the Widows and Children of Contributors
 * under the said Royal Charter or Letters Patent, Non-accessories to the said Act, of the First Class, * Twenty-four Pounds; of the Second Class, Eighteen Pounds; and of the Third Class, Twelve Pounds; * and a further Surplus beyond what was necessary for such Augmentation having been found, the * Managers of the said Incorporation have, with the Concurrence of the Majority of the Contributors, * applied the same so as to lengthen the Period during which the said Annuities are to be payable to * the Children of the said Contributors, (that is to say,) until the youngest of such Children, whether of * ascending or non-ascending Contributors, shall have attained the Age of Eighteen Years. And whereas * the Managers and Cashier of the said Incorporation have, under the Authority of the said recited * Act, invested the Funds of the said Incorporation: in the Purchase, in the Name of the Cashier, of * certain Shares amounting in the whole to the Sum of Sixteen thousand five hundred Pounds of the * Capital or Joint Stock of the Bank of England, and in the Purchase, in the Name of the said Cashier, * of certain Shares amounting in the whole to the Sum of Fourteen thousand Pounds of the Capital or * Joint Stock of the Royal Bank of Scotland, and have also, under the Powers of the said Act, lent out
 * on heritable Securities, taken in the Name of the Cashier of the said Incorporation and his Successors * in Office, certain Sums of Money, amounting in the whole to the Sum of Twenty-three thousand five * hundred Pounds, of and to which said several Sums the said Managers and Cashiers now stand pos* sessed and are entitled by the Title of the said Incorporation; And whereas the said Incorporation now consists, more or less, of One Contributor of the First Class, Seven Contributors of the Second Class, and Seventeen Contributors of the Third Class, being Contributors under the said Royal Charter or Letters Patent, but who refused or neglected to accede as Contributors under the said recited Act, and of Thirty Contributors under the said recited Act of the First Class, One hundred and sixteen such Contributors of the Second Class, and Five hundred and fifty-five such Contributors of the Third Class. And whereas the whole Revenue of Excise of the United Kingdom being now placed under the Management of One General Board of Commissioners, all Officers in the Service of the Excise are Officers for the whole of the United Kingdom, and not for any one Part thereof, and are removable and removed from any one Part of the United Kingdom to any other Part thereof, according to the Exigencies of the Public Service, and by the Abolition of the Chief Office of Excise at Edinburgh the principal Officers and Accountants who were there stationed, and were the principal Managers of the Affairs of the said Incorporation, have either ceased to be Officers of the Revenue, by the Abolition of their Offices, or have been removed to the Chief Office of Excise in London, and inasmuch as the Demands of the Public Service will not allow of Collectors and other Officers being called from their public Duties to meet together and act as Managers, it has been found impossible to confine the Purposes of the said Incorporation and the Management of the Affairs thereof; and it has become therefore expedient to abolish the same, and to make Provision for securing the Rights and Interests of the existing Contributors, and in order to effect the same, that the said Shares in the Stock of the Bank of England and Royal Bank of Scotland respectively should be sold, and the Monies arising from such Sales, together with all Monies which, before such Sales shall be effected, shall have been received and paid to the Account of the said Incorporation, be carried to the Account of the Consolidated Duties of Excise, and be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer under that Head; and the several Sums, amounting to the Sum of Twenty-three thousand five hundred Pounds, together with the Interest arising thereon, as soon as the Bonds given for Payment of the same are discharged, and such Interest as shall in the meantime be payable, should be carried to Account, and paid in manner before mentioned; and that no Person not having been a Contributor before the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five shall be admitted or deemed to have been admitted a Contributor, but that the present Contributors, having become Contributors before the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, shall continue the Payment of their respective Rates, which shall in like Manner be paid over, under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, to the Consolidated Duties of Excise; and that all Annuities to the Widows and Children of Contributors now payable, or which shall hereafter become payable, according to the Provisions of the said recited Act, shall be paid out of the Duties of Excise, and be placed to the Account of Incidents of that Department. May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and he it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Act as directs the Election and Appointment of Managers, and of a Cashier and Clerk of the said Incorporation, and as directs the raising of a Capital Stock, and the Application of any Surplus thereof, as shall be repugnant to this Act, or any of the Provisions thereof, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and the said Incorporation shall from henceforth cease and determine, and no new or additional Members shall be admitted into the same, nor shall any Person be deemed a Member thereof or an existing Contributor within the Meaning of this Act who shall not have been admitted and become a Contributor before the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.

So much of the recited Act as relates the Appointment of Managers, and of a Clerk and Collector, and the raising a Fund, repealed, and the Incorporation to cease.

Funds of the Incorporation vested in the Commissioners of Excise for the Purposes of this Act, and all their Stock to be realized for the same Purpose.

And be it further enacted, That every Person so to be appointed as aforesaid shall, if required, give Security in such Sums or Sums of Money as shall be directed by the Commissioners of Excise for duty recovering, paying over, and accounting for all the Property of the said Incorporation, and otherwise discharging the Duties of his Office, such Security to be taken in the Name of His Majesty; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise to pay and allow to the Person or Persons so appointed such Remuneration and Recompence for his or their Labour and Trouble in the Matter as shall be authorized and directed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Person or Persons so to be appointed as aforesaid shall have full Power and Authority to sell and dispose of the said Shares, and to obtain Payment of the Monies so lost, and to collect and call in all other Property or other Effects, heritable or moveable, belonging to the said Incorporation; and the Receipt or Discharge of any Person or Persons so appointed as aforesaid shall be a full and valid Receipt and Discharge to all and every Person and Persons, Company, Body Politic and Corporate, paying or delivering over any Money or other Property or Effects in their Hands, Custody, or Possession, or due or owing by them, or paid over as the Purchase Money of any such Shares or other Property or Effects of the said Incorporation; and the Person or Persons so appointed shall have full Power and Authority to raise, insist in, and carry on, in his or their Name or Names, any Actions, Suits, or Proceedings at Law, for taking good the Purposes of such his or their Appointment, and collecting, calling in, and realizing the whole of the Property and Effects, heritable and moveable, of the said Incorporation; and no Action, Suit, or Proceeding raised, insisted in, or carrying on by any such Person shall abate, cease, or determine by the Death or Removal of any such Person, but the same shall continue and be insisted on and carried on by the Person who shall be nominated and appointed in the Room or Place of the Person so dying or removed.

And no Person required to answer any of the said Questions shall be permitted or qualified to vote and he shall have answered the same; and if any Person shall wilfully make a false Answer to any of the Questions aforesaid he shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and may be indicted and punished accordingly.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That the Mayor and Assessors shall examine the Voting Papers as delivered on aforesaid, for the Purpose of ascertaining which of the several Persons voted for are elected; and so many of such Persons, being equal to the Number of Persons then to be chosen, as shall have the greatest Number of Votes, shall be deemed to be elected; and in case of an Equality in the Number of Votes for any Two or more Persons, the Mayor and Assessors, or any Two of them, shall name from amongst those Persons for whom the Number of Votes shall be equal as many as shall be necessary to complete the requisite Number of Persons to be chosen; and the Mayor shall cause the Voting Papers to be kept in the Office of the Town Clerk during Six Calendar Months at the least after every such Election; and the Town Clerk shall permit any Burgess to inspect the Voting Papers of any Year, on Payment of One Shilling for every Search; and the Mayor shall publish a List of the Names of the Persons so elected not later than Two of the Clock in the Afternoon of the Day next but One following the Day of such Election, unless such Day be Sunday, and then on the Monday following.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That if the Mayor of any Borough shall, at the Time when it shall be necessary to execute the Powers and Duties herein provided with respect to Elections, be dead, absent, or otherwise incapable of acting, the Council of such Borough shall forth with elect One of the Aldermen to execute all such Powers and Duties in the Place of the Mayor, provided that in the first Election of Councilors and of Auditors and Assessors, as herein-after provided, the Mayor alone shall act with all the Powers and Duties herein-before enacted concerning the Mayor and Assessors jointly in such Elections.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That on the First Day of March in the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and in every succeeding Year, the Burgesses of every Borough shall elect from the Persons qualified to be Councilors by a Majority of Votes, Two Burgesses, who shall be and be called Auditors of each Borough, and Two Burgesses, who shall be and be called Assessors of such Borough; and every such Auditor and Assessor shall continue in Office until the First Day of March in the Year following his Election; and the Election of such Auditors and Assessors respectively shall be in form and manner herein-before provided for the Election of Councilors: Provided nevertheless, that in every such Election of Auditors or Assessors as Burgess shall vote for more than One Person to be an Auditor or Assessor: Provided also, that no Burgess shall be eligible to be or be elected such Auditor or Assessor on aforesaid who shall be of the Council, or the Town Clerk or Treasurer of such Borough.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That after the Declaration of the first Election of the Councilors under the Provisions of this Act in any Borough, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Councilmen, and all other Members of the Common Council or governing Body of the Body Corporate named in conjunction with such Borough in the said Schedules (A.) and (B.) by whatever Name or Style they may be known or called, then in Office, shall go out of Office, and their whole Powers and Duties shall cease: Provided nevertheless, that any of the Persons so going out of Office shall be eligible to be elected and appointed under the Provisions of this Act: Provided also, that such Persons as are Justices of the Peace in any Borough at the Time of passing this Act shall continue to have and exercise all the Powers which at the Time of passing this Act they have as Justices of the Peace, until the First Day of May in the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and no longer: Provided also, that in every Borough in which, by Statute, Charter, Bye Law, or Custom, any Election is appointed to be holden between the Day of the passing of this Act and the First Day of May next, both inclusive, no such Election shall be holden, but every Person holding Office in any Borough on the Day of the passing of this Act shall continue to hold such Office, and to have all the Powers, and be subject to all the Duties, and be entitled to the same Salary and Fees of such Office, as he would have had and been if elected to such Office between the Day of the passing of this Act and the said First Day of May: until the Time provided by this Act for him to go out of Office; any Statute, Charter, Bye Law, or Custom notwithstanding.

XXXIX. And whereas it is expedient that certain Boroughs of large Population should be divided into Wards before any Election of Councilors for such Boroughs should take place: be it therefore enacted, That every Borough in the said Schedule (A.) shall be divided into the Number of Wards mentioned in such Schedule in conjunction with the Name of such Borough; and that it shall be lawful for the Barrister or Barristers appointed in pursuance of the Provisions herein-before contained to certify the Burgesses and Councilors Lists of any Borough in the present Year, and be or they is and are hereby required within the Space of Six Weeks next after the passing of this Act to determine and set out the Extent, Limits, and Boundary Lines of such Wards, and what Portions of such Borough shall be included therein respectively; and the Copy of the Particulars of such Division shall be forthwith transmitted to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and, if His Majesty by Advice of His Privy Council shall approve such Determination, shall be published in the London Gazette, and another Copy of such Particulars shall be delivered to the Town Clerk of such Borough, to be by him safely kept among the Public Documents of such Borough; and every such Borough shall, after such Publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such Wards as shall be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such Division shall continue and be in force until the same shall be altered by Authority of Parliament: Provided always, that if His Majesty, by Advice of His Privy Council, shall not approve such Determination, such Publication as aforesaid shall nevertheless be made, and such Division be in force for the Purpose of any Election under the Provisions of this Act, and until such Time as His Majesty shall by Advice of His Privy Council, upon farther Information and Report from such Barristers, definitively approve the Division of such Borough into Wards in manner herein-before mentioned.

XI. And be it enacted, That the said Barrister or Barristers shall, after the Division of the Borough into such Number of Wards as is directed by this Act, apportion among the several Wards of such Borough the Number of Councilors mentioned in conjunction with the Name of such Borough in the said Schedule (A); and in assigning the Number of Councilors to each Ward the said Barrister or Barristers shall, as far as in his or their Judgment he or they may deem it to be practicable, have Regard as well to the Number of Persons rated to the Relief of the Poor in such Ward as to the aggregate Amount of the Rates at which all the said Persons shall be so rated: Provided always, that the Number of Councilors assigned to each Ward shall be a Number divisible by Three; and a Copy of the Particulars of the Number of Councilors so assigned to the several Wards of the Borough shall be forthwith transmitted to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and subject as aforesaid to the Approval of His Majesty by the Advice of His Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and another Copy of such Particulars shall be delivered to the Town Clerk of the Borough, to be by him safely kept among the Public Documents of such Borough; and the Number of Councilors so assigned to each Ward of such Borough shall, after such Publication as aforesaid, be the Number to be elected in such Ward, and shall so continue until the same shall be altered by Authority of Parliament: Provided always, that if His Majesty, by the Advice of His Privy Council, shall not approve the Number of Councilors so assigned to each Ward, such Publication shall nevertheless be made, and the Number of Councilors so assigned to each Ward of such Borough by such Barrister shall be the Number to be elected in such Ward at any Election of Councilors under this Act and such Time as His Majesty shall by Advice of His Privy Council, upon farther Information and Report from such Barrister, definitively approve such Assignment in manner herein-before mentioned.

XII. And whereas it may be convenient in diverse Boroughs to adhere to the Division of the same into Wards to the ancient Division thereof into Parishes or into Districts under any Local Act, or to adapt such Division to local Circumstances, and such Division so made might render difficult such Appointment of Councilors as is herein-before directed, he it therefore enacted, That in every such Case the said Barrister or Barristers shall be empowered, at his or their Discretion, subject as aforesaid to the Approval of His Majesty by the Advice of His Privy Council, to divide any Borough in conjunction with the Name of which, in the said Schedule (A), shall be mentioned any Number of Wards greater than Two, into any Number of Wards more or less by one than the Number of Wards mentioned in conjunction with the Name of such Borough in the said Schedule.

XIII. VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for each Officer of the Court of Common Pleas for the Time being appointed or to be appointed as aforesaid, from and after the Thirty-first Day of December, to demand and receive the same Fees and Emoluments for all Proceedings, Masters, and Things done, performed, filed, or recorded by him as the several Officers whose Offices are hereby abolished have been accustomed to demand and receive; and the said Officer of the Court of Common Pleas for the Time being is hereby required to account for all such Fees and Emoluments received by him to the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury at such Times and in such Manner as he or they may direct; and the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury is and are hereby authorized and empowered to allow such Officer of the Court of Common Pleas for the Time being such Remission for the Performance of the Duties imposed upon him by this Act as he or they shall think reasonable and proper.

VII. And whereas by the Operation of the said in part recited Act for the Abolition of Fines and Recoveries several Lords of Liberties and other Persons in England and Wales, who are lawfully entitled to receive certain Sums or Fines, or Parts of Fines, payable on the Alms of Lord and other Hereditaments by Fine or Recovery, have been and will be wholly deprived thereof, and it is reasonable and fit that Compensation should be made to the said Persons for such Losses; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, by Warrant under their Hands in order and direct that from and after the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three such annual or other Compensation as in his or their Discretion shall seem just and reasonable shall be made to all and every the Lords of Liberties, Lessees or Grantees under the Crown, Bodies Corporate and Politic and other Persons who at the Time of the passing of the said Act were lawfully entitled to Fines or Parts of Fines payable on Alienation of Land and other Hereditaments in England or Wales as aforesaid, for any Loss which they have and will respectively sustain by reason of the Abolition of such Fines; and all such Compensation, whether annual or in gross, shall be issued and paid and payable out of and charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland: Provided always, that an Account of all such Compensation shall within Fourteen Days next after the same shall be so granted be laid before the Common House of Parliament, if Parliament shall be then assembled, or if Parliament shall not be then assembled then within Fourteen Days after the Meeting of Parliament then next following.

X. And whereas by the Operation of an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for Uniformity of Process in Personal Actions in His Majesty's Courts of Law at Westminster, and of another Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the Abolition of Fees and Revenues, and for the Substitution of more simple Modes of Assistance, the Business of the Carriers of the High Court of Chancery has been greatly diminished, and it is expedient that their Offices should be abolished, and the few remaining Duties transferred to some other Officer belonging to the said Court: be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said Thirty-first Day of December the Offices of the Clerks of the said High Court of Chancery shall utterly cease and determine, and all and every the Duties of the said Carriers shall be performed by the Clerks of the Petty Bag Office in the said Court for the Time being, and all the Acts to be done by the said Clerks of the Petty Bag Office in the Performance of the Duties of the said Carriers, from and after the said Thirty-first Day of December, shall, in all respects, and to all Intents and Purposes, have the same Force and Effect as if the same had been done and performed by the said Carriers or by their Deputies.
